

Stanford Blood Center High School Scholarship Program

Overview

Stanford Blood Center is dedicated to providing a safe and adequate blood supply for patients, as well as supporting the community that helps meet this need. It is in this spirit that we will honor students who actively support our mission through hosting successful blood drives at their high schools.

Stanford Blood Center will award up to $1,000 in scholarship funds to select candidates each academic year. Qualified applicants will have participated in coordinating a successful blood drive on their high school campus.

Eligibility

The applicant must:

- Be a graduating senior.
- Be enrolled in a four-year college/university, a community college, or technical school the following year.
- Have participated on a blood drive committee at their high school and have been actively involved in at least one Stanford Blood Center blood drive for the school year of application submission.
- Complete and submit the scholarship application and attachments on or before the deadline.

Requirements

- A typed essay, no more than two pages (double-spaced), about your personal experience with your high school blood drive(s). Include how your efforts made the drive(s) a success and how you think the experience will benefit your future education, leadership, and volunteerism goals.
- A completed scholarship application and attachments submitted on or before the deadline.
- The deadline to submit the application is June 29, 2026.

Additional Information:

- Scholarships will be awarded by check payable to the college, university or technical school where the student has officially enrolled.
- Recipients will be notified by July 27, 2026.
- Questions: Contact us at 650-374-9051 or givebloodSBC@stanford.edu.
